December 8, 2006 (Boca Raton, FL) --- Multi-Media Productions (USA), Inc. announces that L-3 Communications/SYColeman will be featured on World Business Review, hosted by General Norman Schwarzkopf.

Surveillance technology is a necessity in both the private and public sectors. However; the increasing amount of surveillance information is resulting in 'sensory overload' for operators. Now a new cutting-edge technology has entered the market to help alleviate this problem.

Jerry Bates, President of L-3 Communications/SYColeman stated, "Talented people, with an uncompromising ethical foundation and a singular dedication to providing high-quality results on every job, have built SYColeman into the fast-growing, broadly focused professional services company that it is today."

Executive Vice President Adam Dubner added, "When researching the latest developments in surveillance technology, SYColeman came up as being in touch with the most current advancements in this field. They were a natural to appear on this edition of World Business Review."

About L-3 Communications/SYColeman

In 2002, SYColeman was formed through the integration of two separate businesses: SY Technology, Inc., and Coleman Research Corporation. Today, SYColeman is a single dynamic organization. They provide high quality support services to a myriad of customers in both the Department of Defense (DoD) and commercial sectors from several locations throughout the United States, Iraq, and Puerto Rico. SYColeman is organized and staffed to provide state-of-the-art solutions to our Nation's most difficult challenges.
